

GENERAL RADIOLOGY IN PRINCE GEORGE, BC

Northern Health is seeking a General Radiologist here Radiologist in Prince George; British Columbia's Northern Capital! Join the robust Department of 6 Radiologists in PRINCE GEORGE at the University Hospital of Northern British Columbia (UHNBC). There is opportunity to work in a part-time position providing coverage for example one week on/one week off, two weeks on/two weeks off. Prince George is the centre of business, education, health and culture for Northern BC. The UHNBC group serves a rural population of 400,000 people over an area of 600,000 square kilometers. Prince George offers:

- Affordable housing & short commutes
- The best of both urban & rural living
- Top tier education & athletics
- World-class cross-country ski facilities & biking trails minutes from town

The selected candidate should be comfortable with general radiology, including fluoroscopy, ultrasound, CT and MRI, as well as basic image guided interventional procedures. A fellowship is not a necessity. NO overhead! FFS. Radiology services at UHNBC include:

- Breast Imaging Centre with tomosynthesis mammography
- Ultrasound
- MRI 1.5 Tesla Siemens upgrade 2017
- CT scanners multi detector/multi slice/Dual energy
- Nuclear Medicine
- Interventional Radiology

Just finishing up your training? No problem! Reach out to us early to discuss your career path upon completion.

Discover more about Prince George at: www.moveupprincegeorge.ca

COMPENSATION AND INCENTIVES

Potential Earnings Estimate	$800,000 +
MOCAP (On Call) Estimate	$30,000-50,000
Rural Retention Flat Fee	$19,121
Rural Retention Premium	12.6%

Compensation is Fee for Service. We also offer a recruitment incentive of $15,000 and relocation assistance between $9,000-$15,000.

Rural Continuing Medical Education provides funding to update and enhance medical skills and credentials required for rural practice, up to 7,800 per year based on years of service